Explanations

In our disclosure dated 05.04.2024, it was disclosed that a Share Purchase Agreement (Agreement) was executed for the purposes of the acquisition of our shares in Eczacıbaşı Monrol Nükleer Ürünler Sanayi ve Ticaret A.Ş. corresponding to 50% of its paid-in share capital by Curium International Trading B.V. (Curium) and completion of such acquisition was conditional upon the receipt of necessary regulatory approvals including Turkish Competition Board (TCB) approval and fulfilment of all other condition precedents agreed between the Parties; in our disclosure dated 08.08.2024, it was disclosed that it was decided by the Turkish Competition Board to take the relevant transaction for final review in accordance with the first paragraph of Article 10 of Law No. 4054 on the Protection of Competition (Law); in our disclosure dated 23.12.2024, it was disclosed that, the final review period is extended for six months starting from 27.01.2025 by the Turkish Competition Authority and that the process was ongoing.

In order to alleviate certain concerns on markets affected in certain ways, Curium has offered commitments on 18.02.2025 with document no of 63416 based upon which the TCB granted a conditional approval under their decision dated 20.02.2025 and numbered 25-07/175-87.

In this respect, the share transfer transaction may be carried out following the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the commitment letter and the conditions precedents specified in the Agreement.
