Explanations

In the Allocation of Profit (Loss) for the Period table included in the Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income disclosed to the public on 29 April 2026, the amount that should have been presented under the Owners of the Parent line in the PDP template was inadvertently reported under the NonControlling Interests line.

The data in the relevant lines will be corrected and our financial statements will be redisclosed to the public accordingly.

There are no errors in the financial reports included in the annex of the said disclosure.

This statement has been translated into English and simultaneously announced for informational purposes. In the event of any discrepancy between the Turkish and the English versions, the Turkish version shall prevail.
