Explanations

Regarding the initial public offering (IPO) of our Company's shares, developments concerning one of the lawsuits specified in the statement "...furthermore, there are 6 legal disputes as a plaintiff and 1 legal dispute as an intervener" on line 2, page 222, article 23.7 of the prospectus approved by the Capital Markets Board on 16.07.2026 and announced on KAP on 17.07.2026, are presented below for the public's information:
In the negative declaratory lawsuit filed against TEİAŞ by our Company's 100% subsidiary, Yander Elektrik Mühendislik Müşavirlik İnşaat Turizm ve Ticaret A.Ş., on the grounds that the invoice amounting to TRY 92,446,714.32 (including VAT) issued by TEİAŞ under the WPP Contribution Fee for Mersinli WPP for the year 2024 was overcalculated in violation of the WPP Contribution Fee Agreement between the parties, the court of first instance had decided to dismiss the case.
Following the appeal filed against the aforementioned decision, the Regional Court of Appeal accepted our appeal, overturned the decision of the court of first instance, and ruled for the acceptance of the case, declaring that our Company's subsidiary is not indebted for TRY 89,667,451.73 of the subject invoice amount.
The decision is not yet finalized, and the right to appeal before the Supreme Court remains open. Matters requiring public disclosure within the framework of capital markets legislation regarding the finalization process of the decision and developments on the subject will be shared with the public.
Respectfully announced to the public.
Kind Regards,
